

oaSES Joins the EIA

Last Updated Monday, 15 December 2008

We are happy to announce that oaSES recently joined the Education Industry Association (EIA). This builds on our commitment to building responsible and dedicated services to education providers around the country. We intend to be active within the association and build on relationships by attending various national forums and conferences backed by the EIA.